Selected Poetry. I WAIT FOR THEE The hearth is awept—the tire is bright, The kettle stigs for ion. The stab is spread, the lamp's alight, And muffles smoke in napkins white, And now I wait for thee.

Come home, love, come: thy task is done: The clock ticks listeningly; The blinds are shut, the curtain down, The arm char to the fireads drawn— The boy is on my knee.

Come home, love, come: his deep fond eye Lanks rampl him wistfully; And when the whispering winds goby, As if thy, welcome steps were nigh,

He crows exultingly. In vate—he fieds the welcome vain, And turns his glance on mine So carriedly, that yet agale, His form nato my beart I strain— That glance is so like thine.

The task is done—we paiss thee here, Where're try footsteps ream, No heart will spend such kindly cheer, No bents a heart, no listening car, Lake those who wait the home.

Ah, now along the cross-walk fast,
The well-known step doth come:
The bolt is drawn; the gate is past,
The boy is wild with joy at last—
A thousand welcomes home. FLORA TEMPLE.

At Hickman, Kentucky, two desperate to the down and I laborate the line is under the line is un of this District will de understood, and some idea may be formed of the dificulties under which I labored when I state that when I was appointed I never had held an appointment under the General Government, and could only judge of the manner in which it held its officers accordance in which it held its officers accordance in which it held its officers accordance in the Department, and could only judge of the manner in which it held its officers accordance in the Department of countable, by what was the rule in this regulations, on taking charge of the office, office. I did not however, continue these resulted almost as a matter of course, hesitation in saying, than would most I was entitled to great credit for the re These reforms commenced almost with I wrote the Department as early as the first day of entrance into office, and house and get something to make a drag. With that I gives the kunnoo a couple uv hard shoves an lands her, and I sez to Bill—

"Sonny, you go in an ax mammy for the pot hooks and the bed-cord or close-line."

"I didn't hear him answer and turned attacked in his sleep one night by what he supposed to have been a panther. Have been a panther. Have grappled the animal's throat by one hand, and began to feel for his bowies from the Great Western Railway of Canada were sent to the Railroad Described in the country. All this has been one hight by what I wrote the Department as early as the first day of entrance into office, and May 20, 1857, and again September 15th, 1857, stating the manner in which goods from the Great Western Railway of Canada were sent to the Railroad Described under the most adverse line."

"I didn't hear him answer and turned attacked in his sleep one night by what I was a carly as the first day of entrance into office, and May 20, 1857, and again September 15th, 1857, stating the manner in which goods from the Great Western Railway of Canada were sent to the Railroad Described under the most adverse advising it of the steps I had taken to reveal the avil stating that what I was a carly as the first day of entrance into office, and May 20, 1857, and again September 15th, 1857, stating the manner in which goods from the Great Western Railway of Canada were sent to the Railroad Described under the most adverse at the first day of entrance into office, and May 20, 1857, and again September 15th, 1857, stating the manner in which goods from the Great Western Railway of Canada were sent to the Railroad Described under the most adverse at the first day of entrance into office, and the first day of entrance into office, and the continued until the business is as strictly and as properly conducted as that of any one hand, and began to feel for his bowies from the Great Western Railway of Canada were sent to the Railroad Described under the country. All this has been one had a support to the first day o before killed a grizzly in a fair fight with a bowie-knife, had no idea of yielding to instructions of the Department, but edly for that purpose. I have heretofore
